General Stoessel, Brave Defender, Has at Last Had Enough.

DESPATCHES MESSENGER TO THE JAPS

The Emperor of Japan Orders That Honors Be shown General Stoessel.

Official Announcement of Fortress' Surrender at 9 o'clock Sunday Night Received in Washington Monday.

WASHINGTON, JAN. 2.—(Bulletin)—Minister for foreign affairs for Japan informed Mr. Criscom, the American Minister at Tokyo, that General Stoessel surrendered Port Arthur at 9 o'clock Sunday evening. This news came in a dispatch to State Department today.

MIKADO RAISES GEN. STOESEL.

Tokyo, Jan. 2.—The Mikado has telegraphed General Nogi, extolling the conduct of General Stoessel, the Russian commander, and directing that he be accorded the honors of a general. General Nogi has appointed General Ijimi, his representative, with full plenipotentiary powers, to discuss the terms of surrender with General Stoessel. The Russian and Japanese representatives will meet at Shushing to discuss the terms. It is understood that hostilities at Port Arthur will cease for today. It is not considered likely that General Stoessel will be allowed to communicate with St. Petersburg regarding the terms. General Stoessel's letter to General Nogi is said, reads: "I offer to surrender because further practical resistance is useless."

LONG STRUGGLE AT PORT ARTHUR ENDED.

LONDON, Jan. 2.—A report to a news agency here from Tokyo today states that from imperial headquarters was sent to General Nogi a statement embodying the exact terms upon which the surrender of Port Arthur will be accepted and that a reply has been received.

The nature of this reply is at present unknown but judging from the attitude of members of the general staff, there is reason to believe that it is favorable and that the long struggle is indeed ended. When the first report of the offer to surrender was received at imperial headquarters messengers were sent in hot haste for Admiral Togo and Vice Admiral Kamimura and they hurried to the office of the general staff and were at once admitted. It is said that the terms as finally drafted were proposed by Admiral Togo. According to another report the Russians demanded that the remainder of the garrison be escorted in safety to the mainland pending the negotiations for their liberation, and that all these persons not in the old and new town and unable to leave be protected. The report adds that these terms have been agreed to.

VICE ADMIRAL HEIHACHIRO TOGO, "THE JAPANESE NELSON."

Vice Admiral Togo, who captured the Russian squadron at Port Arthur, comes of the samurai of the Mikado and is about fifty-five years of age. He received his education at the naval college, Greenwich, England, and was one of Japan's best sea fighters during the Russo-Japanese war.

STOESEL WEAKENS

Russian Commander Dispatches a Messenger to the Japanese General at Port Arthur.

Tokyo, Jan. 2.—The following cable has been received from General Nogi: "I received a letter relating to surrender from General Stoessel, the commander of the Port Arthur garrison, Sunday night at 9 o'clock."

London, Jan. 2.—The news that the Russian forces at Port Arthur have been reduced to such a strait that, at last the heroic commander has been forced to propose surrender follows upon a month of reverses. The siege began almost with the firing of the first gun in the war, now nearly 11 months ago, and when perhaps the greatest stronghold in the world was garrisoned by 40,000 Russian soldiers, supported by a formidable squadron of modern battleships, cruisers and torpedo boats. These warships have been destroyed or dispersed. The garrison, at latest accounts, had been reduced to 15,000 men. On Dec. 4 200-meter hill, one of the most commanding positions in the series of forts held by the Russians, was captured by the Japanese after a severe fight in which the losses on both sides were enormous. It was from this hill that the deathblows were dealt the warships that were then remaining in the harbor, and afterward the Japanese guns were trained upon the town and such forts as were within range.

On Dec. 19 the Kekwan fort was taken by the Japanese, affording them another advantageous position from which to assail other forts in the chain of defenses. Mining and sapping were important factors in the capture of this position, as they were also in the fall of the Rihlung fort on Dec. 23. All these achievements served to cut communications between the Liaoi fort, destined to be the "last ditch" of the defenders, from a great part of the chain of forts. From the hour of the fall of East Kekwan, events have seemed to be hastening to their culmination, for on Dec. 31 Sunghu mountain fell into the hands of the besiegers, and only a few hours later the "H" fort, another strong position, was captured.

REDUCED BY JAPS

Important Positions at Port Arthur are Now in the Possession of the Mikado.

Tokyo, Jan. 2.—Japanese successes continue at Port Arthur. The fort on Sunghu mountain was captured at 11 o'clock Saturday. The works were mined and exploded at 10 a. m., many Russians being killed and buried in the debris. Those who remained in the fort were captured. There was little opposition to the attack. The northwest section of the fort was destroyed, affording cover for the assailants. The Japanese now hold forts guarding the entire western half of the eastern fort ridge.

Following the dramatic capture of Sunghu mountain Saturday morning the Japanese Sunday captured the fort and a recently constructed fort on Panlung mountain, which gives them possession of the entire line between Rihlung mountain and "H" fort by way of Panlung mountain. Since by way of Panlung mountain the Japanese have been pressing south about three miles, they have reached the heights south of the Rihlung fort.

A telegram received from Tokyo today backing up the news that the Japanese had captured the Rihlung fort, says that the Japanese had captured the Rihlung fort and also captured a new fort on Panlung mountain.

GENERAL NOGI, WHO COMMANDS THE FOURTH JAPANESE ARMY.

The task of capturing Port Arthur is in the hands of General Nogi, who is in command of the Fourth army of Japan. He is a veteran of the China-Japanese war and assisted as a division commander in capturing Port Arthur from the Chinese in 1904.

London, Jan. 2.—(Bulletin)—Baron Hayashi, the Japanese minister, announced today that General Nogi has reported to the Tokyo government that General Stoessel's proposal has been accepted. The terms and process of surrender will be negotiated between the respective delegates at noon today.

Early today Viscount Hayashi was asked by your correspondent at his residence, what was the latest news he had received from Tokyo. He said that he had nothing definite but expressed the belief that in less than 24 ours a "momentous announcement" might be expected. Further than that he declined to be questioned.

London, Jan. 2.—The Tokyo correspondent of the Central News, calling from Japan's capital, at noon, today, confirms the report that General Stoessel has offered to surrender Port Arthur to the Japanese. He does not state, however, that the fortress is in the hands of Gen. Nogi's men and from the tone of his dispatch it is believed that the Russian commander wants at least favorable terms. The correspondent says:

"Following the severe fighting of Saturday and Sunday, a flag of truce was sent out by the Russian commander from Port Arthur. It was followed a few minutes later by an aide-de-camp of General Stoessel, with two orderlies who asked that he be escorted through the Japanese lines to the headquarters of Lieutenant-General Nogi, stating that he was the bearer of an important communication from the Russian commander-in-chief to the Japanese. The communication was found to be a proposal looking towards the surrender of the Russian position and the garrison. Owing to the importance of the news, General Nogi deferred replying to the communication but sent the substance of it to the imperial headquarters at Tokyo. Prior to the request for an armistice the Japs had stormed and captured an important station known as Signal Hill."

SURRENDER HAS TAKEN PLACE.

Berlin, Jan. 2.—Several news agencies reporting from Tokyo and Chefoo have it that the surrender of Port Arthur has taken place, the garrison capitulating after an exchange of communication between Generals Nogi and Stoessel. At the Japanese legation here it was declared that important dispatches had been received, but they could not be given out at present.

lung mountain. Thus the line between Rihlung mountain and "H" fort via Panlung mountain fell firmly into our hands. Part of our right, which commenced a bombardment at 8 o'clock in the morning and dislodged the enemy, who resisted stubbornly, firmly occupied a height south of Housanyentao at 2 o'clock.

News of the continuance of Japanese success at Port Arthur is received with elation in Tokyo. It is known that the Japanese losses were comparatively light. It is believed here that the Russian garrison is finally reaching its limits of strength, endurance and numbers.

Sevastopol's Last Stand.

Chefoo, Jan. 2.—Pathetic references to the last stand of the last ship of the Russian Asiatic squadron appear in the Port Arthur Herald in the issues of Dec. 21 and 23. Even General Stoessel, the military commander at Port Arthur, who had made no mention of the ship since Dec. 10, issued an order last night for the destruction of the ship. The ship was a Russian torpedo boat, and it is said that the ship was sunk by the Japanese. The ship was a Russian torpedo boat, and it is said that the ship was sunk by the Japanese.

Russia's New Navy.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 2.—With reference to the new Russian navy, it is said that the Russian government has decided to build a new fleet of battleships. The new fleet is to consist of ten battleships, and it is said that the Russian government has decided to build a new fleet of battleships.

Liveryman Cut His Throat After Attempting to Murder His Wife.

Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 2.—After attempting the life of his wife George Gleason, a liveryman of St. Joseph, Mo., leaped far out of the second-story window of his mother-in-law's home here and cut his throat with a razor from ear to ear in sight of several hundred persons, who had been attracted by Mrs. Gleason's screams. There was no witness to the first part of the tragedy except the young wife, who is now lying in the city hospital. Mrs. Gleason was terribly wounded. Her throat and face were slashed with a razor and her hands and arms were badly cut while she struggled with the desperate man.

Jealous Girl Uses a Revolver at a Road House Dance Near Logansport, Indiana.

Logansport, Ind., Jan. 2.—Florence Mitchell shot and killed Ella Swisher during a dance at a roadhouse three miles from here. Both are young women belonging to respectable families. Miss Swisher had danced repeatedly with C. L. Morgan, and as she left the dance kissed him. As she did so Miss Mitchell drew a revolver and fired at her. The second shot was fired as she went through the door and the third, which penetrated the heart, was fired a moment later. Miss Mitchell is under arrest.

CHICAGO'S POOR

Six Thousand Hungry and Distressed Men and Women Made Happy New Year's Day.

Chicago, Jan. 2.—Six thousand hungry and distressed men, women and children were made happy for a few hours at the Coliseum Annex, where the Volunteers of America gave their eighth annual dinner to the poor of Chicago. For seven hours after the doors were thrown open a throng of about 1,000 people filled the place to its full capacity. Besides the dinner in the Coliseum Annex the religious organization distributed 1,000 baskets of food among the needy who were unable to participate in the regular New Year dinner.

DEPOSED PASTOR

Pays a Visit to Huntington, But Gives No Information About the Case Against the Bishop.

Huntington, Pa., Jan. 2.—The Rev. Dr. I. N. W. Irvine, the deposed pastor of St. John's Episcopal church, who arrived here from Philadelphia and immediately sought seclusion in the home of Vestryman W. F. Hillier, one of the men whose names appear on the presentment against Bishop Talbot, has left for the east. Dr. Irvine would give no information concerning the purpose of the visit. Vestryman Hillier was likewise silent. Dr. Irvine's unexpected departure is viewed here as inexplicable to his friends and opponents. He communicated with none of his former vestrymen or parishioners, and denied himself to all friends. It is generally believed that the brightness of his visit was due to his failure to influence the vestrymen who have repudiated their signatures on the presentment to permit their names to remain on that paper. ## The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, kidney failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

Bladder troubles most always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmor's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sized bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmor & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.

GRANVILLE NEWS

TEST GAS WELL TO BE DRILLED
NORTH OF TOWN.

Watched the Old Year Out—Denison
Winter Term Begins Wednesday.
Personal Items.

Granville, O., Jan. 2.—A number of young ladies of the village watched the old year out at the home of the Misses Case on Saturday evening.

Games were played, stories told, and the evening was spent most pleasantly. Light refreshments were served.

Those present were the Misses Helen Baldwin, Stella Moore, Ruth, Mary
and Margaret McKibbin, Pearl and Mary Ferguson, Faith Pomroy, Edna Thornton, Julia Pickard, Gwendolyn
and Margaret Watkins, Faye Marlowe, Clara Follett Jaret Jones, Alice and Helen Case.

The young ladies of the village observed the time-honored custom of receiving New Year's calls on New Year's day, from the young gentlemen of their acquaintance. The calls, however, were received on Saturday afternoon instead of Sunday, Miss Ray Gilpatrick, the Misses Colwell and Miss Ruth McKibbin acting as hostesses at their different homes, assisted by four or five other young ladies at the home of each. The young men responded most heartily to their invitation and a merry time was had by all. Refreshments were served at each house.

Mr. William Evans and Mr. Burt Nichols entertained a few friends with a "dorm" party at their rooms in the dormitory on Saturday evening, Mrs.
Helen Hunt acting as chaperon. The guests were Misses Mary Hunt, Julia Pickard, Bess, Edna and Delia Thornton and Mary McKibbin.

M. J. Little, a teamster, employed by the gas company, is suffering from a severely sprained shoulder. He was engaged in loading a wagon with timber, when he slipped and fell, striking on his shoulder, breaking several ligaments, and producing an injury that will disable him from duty for some time.

Several test wells will soon be put down north of Granville in order to fully settle the vexed question of whether or not gas can be procured in paying quantities in the vicinity of Granville. The project has been under consideration for some time.

A chicken house belonging to A. M.
Miller, a short distance northeast of town, burned Saturday night. Nearly all the chickens were saved. The loss will amount to about $20.

Mr. Helen Rose and Miss Grace Rose entertained most charmingly at their home with a luncheon on Saturday, Misses Virginia and Margaret Thorne, Carrie Howland, Helen Case,
Stella Case and Faith Pomroy.

After a short visit here with friends,
Miss Grace Leslie has returned to her home in Mansfield.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Howser of Bucyrus, who have been visiting here for a few days, left for their home on Monday, after having had a very pleasant visit.

William Thomas went to Columbus
Saturday and had a (tumorous) growth removed from his face. He is none the worse for his experience.

The winter term of Denison University will begin on Wednesday.

is the guest of Rev. Mr. Harford and family.

Miss Faye Marlowe entertained a few friends very handsomely at her home on Friday evening.

Miss Maud Lyons of Columbus, visited friends in the village on Saturday.

Miss Emma Matthews of Barnesville, who has been visiting friends in Newark for the past week, was a Granville visitor Sunday.

SOFTNESS OF SEALSKIN.

Is Rivalled by Human Hair Where Dandruff is Eradicated.

Sealskin is admired the world over for its softness and glossiness; and yet the human hair is equally as soft and glossy
when healthy; and the radical cause of all hair trouble is dandruff, which is caused by a pestiferous parasite that saps the vitality of the hair at its root. Newbro's Herpicide is the only preparation that is fatal to the dandruff germ. Without dandruff
there is no falling hair, but a luxuriant growth of glossy, soft hair is certain. Scouring the scalp won't cure dandruff. Kill the dandruff germ. Thousands of women owe their beautiful locks of hair to Newbro's Herpicide. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps
to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

TRIED TO KILL CZAR

St. Petersburg, Jan. 2.—The Czar's journey to Kharkoff has been postponed owing to the fact that revolutionists have wrecked the train entering the Czar's suite, which prevented the royal train. The wreckers mistook the train for the Czar's which was due a few hours later. Several of his majesty's servants were killed.

NEW YEAR SUPERSTITIONS.

Queer Things Believed by Old Wives
of Many Lands.

With the exception of All Saints' day,
there is no time in the whole twelvemonth about which so many superstitions cluster as New Year's. Some form of divination to foretell the future is practiced in almost every land on Jan. 1. This, of course, is particularly the case with young people who desire to know whether they will get married during the coming year or soon thereafter.

In the country districts of England and Germany there is a tea
and coffee test which is most satisfactory. A teaspoon is balanced carefully on the edge of a cup. Then tea or coffee, as the case may be, is dropped into it, drop by drop. Every drop that the spoon will hold without losing its balance means another year before the wedding. One or two large drops will usually upset the spoon, and so this is a very popular way of looking into the future.

The actions and voices of domestic animals on New Year's day are pe-haps more significant than any other omens. A dog's cheerful bark in the morning is a most auspicious sign,
while his howl is very unfavorable.

To meet a cat on the morn of the New Year is considered by people in the Latin countries as a sign that they will change their residence, and it also betokens ill for the future. Throughout southern Europe it is regarded as a most fortunate sign to see a pig, signifying plenty for the coming twelvemonth. The sight of a snake is the worst conceivable omen, for it means death by violence. To see a jackdaw, magpie or crow is a sign that the beholder will be cheated on all sides during the following year.

On New Year's day a hard headed Scotchman will take a Bible and place it upon a table, letting it fall open to its own accord. Then, without looking,
he will place his finger upon the page
where it has opened and read the verse on which it rests. This is supposed to indicate his fortune for the coming twelvemonth.

THE CHINESE NEW YEAR.

How the Celestials in New York
Celebrate Their Holiday.

When you meet a Chinaman on Feb.
6 and you want to make yourself particularly solid with him just remark,
"Gong he fat toy." This is not particularly euphonious when spoken in pigeon English, but it means "I wish you a happy New Year." The Chinese New Year begins at 12 o'clock on the night of Feb. 5. The Chinese kingdom is now nearly 5,800 years old, and the customs that obtained during the lifetime of Confucius are still in vogue.

In fact, the present mayor of China-town claims that most of the Christian ideas of celebrating New Year's day were stolen bodily from the Chinese.

Around in the various houses preparations are made to receive friends. The opium layouts are put aside and the fine Chinese whisky placed upon the table. Any one who calls on a China-man has to take a drink of this fiery liquid. About six calls, says the mayor, are about all a white man can make.

At midnight every Chinaman who can buy a firecracker does so. Then he touches a match to his purchase, and for a few minutes pandemonium reigns. At 1 o'clock the Chinese band begins to beat its tom-toms from the balcony of the joss house, calling all the faithful to prayer, and New Year's is really on hand. The extent of the New Year's celebration depends upon the wealth of each individual China-man. A poor Chinaman is satisfied with a two days' jubilee. The rich men in the Chinese village generally take a week to get fully acquainted with the New Year.—New York World.

A Canadian Custom.

The custom of running the vignoles,
which is believed to have originated with the Druids, was observed in Montreal as late as 1870. Organized companies of young men would travel from house to house soliciting alms for the poor, generally in the form of edibles, and threatening violence if their requests were refused. In 1860 the mayor of Montreal issued on New Year's eve permits to lads to run the vignoles so as to protect them from arrest by the police. This precautionary measure did not always prove effectual in preventing disorder when rival vignoleux met. Some of them under the influence of the "ardent"
would get up a quarrel, the victors adding to their store of gifts by de-spolting the vanquished of theirs.

Ghostly New Year's Visits.
New Year's day, like many other of the national holidays in French Canada, is surrounded by a halo of legendary lore. In the days of the old regime in Canada the free life of the woods and prairies proved too tempting for the young men, who frequently deserted civilization for the savage delights of the wilderness. These adventurers seldom returned in the flesh,
but on every New Year's eve, back through showery and hurricane in-midst, came their spirits in ghostly clothes to join for a brief spell the old folks at home and kiss the girls on the annual feast of the Jour de l'An—New Year's day. The legend which still survives in French speaking Canada is known as "La Chasse Galet."

Dr. Depew's New Year's Advice.
Just do all the good you can. Don't take the troubles of others on your shoulders if it is not necessary, and don't tell others your troubles. Be cheerful. Seem happy, even if you are not. Try every day to make some one else think life is worth living. All these are good resolutions for the New Year. If every one made them and every one kept them this world would be a better place than it is. C. M. Depew.

SHERIFF ANDERSON

GIVES WAY TO SHERIFF-ELECT
SMITH L. REDMAN.

Charles Hindle is the Deputy and J. W.
Uffner is Named as County
Jailer.

Mr. W. H. Anderson, Jr., who for the past four years has so faithfully and efficiently served the people of Licking county as sheriff, was succeded on Monday, January 2, by Mr.
Smith L. Redman, who was elected on the Republican ticket last fall, Mr.
Anderson's term having expired at midnight on Sunday night. Mr. Anderson, during the two terms that he has held the office has made one of the best sheriffs Licking county has ever had. He has been earnest and zealous in the discharge of the duties of the office, and has always looked carefully to the best interests of the people and county. He retires with the best wishes of all for success in whatever business he may engage in.

Mr. William Linke, who has been Mr. Anderson's faithful deputy, under his administration, also retires from the office with the best wishes of all his friends. He has made a No. 1 deputy, and has performed the duties of the office in a manner that has been highly satisfactory to the people of the county, and but for the Republican landslide that carried everything before it last fall, would be the sheriff of the county today.

Mr. Redman succeeds Mr. Anderson in the office. He was sworn into the office on Saturday by Prosecuting Attorney James R. Fitzgibbon, and furnished bond in the sum of $40,000.

He will have as his deputy Mr. Chas.
H. Hindle, an old Newark boy, who for several years has held the position of guard at the Ohio Penitentiary. He has also chosen Mr. John W. Uffner as jailer of the county jail.

WOUNDS

and sores of any kind, caused by any kind of accidents, cuts, burns, scalds, bruises, sprains, etc., are best treated by the immediate application of Ham-lin's Wizard Oil.

This great, soothing, curative remedy relieves pain, reduces swelling and inflammation, and heals up all open wounds and sores. It is the one perfect, modern dressing, or treatment, for a wound. Its quick use will positively prevent blood poisoning. Always keep it at hand.

Says Mrs. Jessie Farri, of Elizabeth, Ky.: "My little boy was badly burned
on both legs, which were so drawn out of shape that he could not even crawl.
I tried many remedies without relief,
but finally Hamlin's Wizard Oil made a perfect cure, and he can now walk and run. We thought we should have to amputate both his legs, and feel that Hamlin's Wizard Oil saved his life." Price 50c and $1.00.

SENATOR MITCHELL

Who Has Been Indicted in Oregon in Land Fraud Cases Claims to be Innocent.

Portland, Ore., Jan. 2.—Senator
John H. Mitchell, Congressman Herman and George Sorrensen, formerly a deputy sheriff of Multnomah county, were jointly indicted by the federal grand jury. The statement alleges that John H. Mitchell and Binger Herman did in January, 1902, unlawfully and feloniously conspire together and with others to defraud the government of the United States out of a portion of its public lands, situated in Township 11 south of Range 7 east, by means of forged and false affidavits and fictitious persons, and that in the furtherance of such conspiracy S. A.
D. Pater did on March 9, 1902, pay to John H. Mitchell the sum of $2,000 to secure his influence with Binger Herman, then commissioner of the general land office at Washington. It alleges that, acting upon the suggestion and the wish of Senator Mitchell, and influenced by him, Herman used his power as commissioner of the general land office to expedite 12 claims in Township 11-7 and had them passed to patent when he knew them to be illegal. Senator Mitchell claims he is innocent and announces he is ready for trial.

A BOY'S HUG

Broke the Old Lady's Collar Bone and
She May Die—Victim is 22
Years Old

New Brighton, Pa., Jan. 2.—Mr.
Amelia Hill, aged 52 years, of this city, is confined to her home with a broken collar bone and leg injuries, are considered most dangerous. The old lady was hugged to violence by a youth of the neighborhood who has always been a favorite of Mrs. Hill.
In sport he threw his arms about her
and hugged her so hard that her collar bone was crushed and a crack in her leg. She may not recover.

New Year's Resolutions.

It is the fashion of many to ridicule the custom of making New Year's day resolutions. Nevertheless it is one that is not without its good points. The beginning of a new year is a fitting time for a man to take account of himself, as well as of his goods, to find out just whether he is tending and whether he has made moral progress during the past twelve months or retrograded. Certainly if the latter is the case, then it is the utmost folly to neglect to decide to do better. It is not necessary to write out a set of resolutions to that effect. The man need only say to himself that henceforth his course will be different, and his face will be set toward the right instead of the wrong. The man who is set upon doing better this year than last will not have to take an affidavit as to his purpose. He will resolve, and if he has the true spirit and the right idea he will make his resolution take the form of deeds. The men who fail to keep their New Year's resolutions are those who are not really in earnest when they make them. Those who resolve with the firm purpose to achieve are the men who make themselves and the world better.

CITY WATER WORKS

Miller R. Henry Says Purchase of Old Plant Will Save the City Another Bond Issue.

(Communicated.)

I have been requested to give an opinion on the water works question, and in doing so I will confine myself to a subject which so far has not been discussed, and that is the economic results to be obtained by the city by purchasing the present plant. The city has three hundred thousand dollars to construct a water system adequate for the enlarged condition of the corporate limits. In the first place this amount is entirely insufficient to accomplish the object in view. It would require almost the entire sum to duplicate the old plant, and then you would be compelled to issue more bonds to complete the work. Hence I am in favor of purchasing the old plant as soon as possible.

I will assume that the old plant can be purchased for $150,000, then you have that amount left for the purpose of making extensions and the betterment of fire protection. By purchasing the old plant you stop paying fourteen thousand dollars per annum for fire rates; you will save to the city about thirty thousand dollars interest on the bonds, and in addition would be collecting water rent for the benefit of the city and be relieved of competition by another company.

It would require about two years to complete the new plant ready for successful operation, and I repeat my belief in the purchase of the present plant, when by so doing you can save to the taxpayers another bond issue of two hundred thousand dollars. With the purchase of the old plant at $150,000 and what you save in hydrant rent, tax on bonds, which is lost while building a new plant would aggregate $225,000, a sum adequate to complete a successful operation one of the best water systems in the state.

These suggestions are not made in the interest of the water works company, neither are they made in the interest of the city hall, but they are made for a nobler purpose. They are made in the interest of the taxpayers and for the general welfare of the citizens of the city of Newark.

It may then produce irregularity of the stomach and bowels, dyspepsia, catarrh, and marked tendency to consumption before manifesting itself in much cutaneous eruption or glandular swelling.

The Bulldog.

A is for Address. (Thus the Carrier spoke.)
I write one each year, and I find it no joke.
Poor Pegasus limps as he trots down the street.
So scan with forbearance his poetic feet.

B is for the Bulldog I meet at the gate.
He always seems hungry for something to "ate."
And oft in the past has this meaneast of Towseers
Bereft me by force of the seat of my trousers!

C is for Carrier—don't say a word!
When I'm on time people say "He's a bird!"
Just let the paper get round rather late—
Then I'm a "dead one," a "slow poke," a "skate!"

D is for Devil—the paper keeps one.
Day after day he has nothing but fun—
Inking his form and his feet and his face,
Dodging a mallet, a plane or a chase.

E is for Editor, brainy and brave.
Hot on the trail of each rogue and each knave.
When he sits down in his sanctum sanctorum,
How he does roast 'em and flay 'em and score 'em!

F is for the Foreman so gentle and mild.
When things go wrong and he gets a bit "riled,"
Wonderful eloquence leaps to his aid
When he is teaching the "devil" his trade.

G STANDS for Goat, which is more than I'd do.
Billy with whiskers once made me feel blue;
Cut up the queerest and meanest of capers—
Swallowed a hundred or two of my papers.

H is for Hurry and Hustle and Hike.
Watch me next time when I come down the pike!
Troubled a bit with rheumatics or gout?
Not on your life—when the paper's just out!

I is for Items. We give you a lot;
Serve 'em up spicy and breezy and hot.
Everything going you'll find in our sheet,
Bright as a dollar and first on the street.

J is for Jawsmith, a novel pet name.
The "devil" in private invented the same,
And also in private explains with great vim—
The foreman's a Jawsmith, according to him.

K is for Katie, my "steady," you know (I have several others, but they're pretty slow).
And when I have money and diamonds and stocks
Kate gets a life sentence at darning my socks.

L is for Leather—shoe leather, you know.
I do so much walking my shoes have no show.
The job of an actor is just 'bout my size;
I'd make a great hit getting over the ties.

M is for Monkey, the name of a dash That keeps two news items from having a clash.
Sometimes, like its namesake, it gets up too high,
And then the boss sputters and wants to know why.

N STANDS for New Year. There's one just on tap.
It runs from Time's barrel and covers the map.
And during the year, when the good things are flowing
May all of us catch 'em both coming and going.

O STANDS for Onward. A bull I once met
When loaded with papers and full of regret.
I ran for the fence, but the bull was too swift,
And our circulation—she got quite a lift!

P is for Printers, the boys on the sheet.
I knew one who used to set type with his feet.
Said I: "What you doing? You give me the chills."
Said he: "Why, I simply am footing my bills."

Q is for Quads, little things made of lead.
Though all through the paper, not one shows his head.
They're just like some people we know—you and I—
So small and so measly they're hardly type high.

R is for Reporter—a worried young man
Who hustles and scribbles as fast as he can.
If he were as dead as a doornail tonight
And some one yelled "Copy!" he'd sit up and write.

S is for Swiftly. That's how I proceed
When leaving the paper that all like to read.
If I had my way and could bring it about,
You'd all get the paper before it was out.

T is for Tommy, who trots at my heels,
He just wags his tail, but it pays for his meals.
He'll bound with a paper upon your porch floor,
And bark "Bow, wow, wow!" till you open the door.

U is for Useful, a fine thing to be.
And Katie declares that the word just fits me.
In fact, she asserts, with a sly, wicked joy,
"You're useful, if not ornamental, my boy."

V is for Five Dollars. I found a bill once.
And then found the owner. Say, I was a dunce!
She gave me five pennies. "You're honest!" said she.
Said I, "My dear madam, are these ALL for me!"

W is for Wealthy—a thing I am not.
I've never been taken for Andy the Scot.
And yet it seems certain, the way I'm now placed,
That, like A. Carnegie, I shan't die disgraced.

X is for Xtras. Big towns get them out From morning till night, and the boys—
how they shout!
A record for promptness I'd make there quite soon,
For six o'clock extras are ready at noon.

Y is for Yellow. Some papers are that.
They give you the jaundice and take off your fat.
I'm thankful to state it may truly be said
Our paper's not yellow at all, but it's READ.

Z is for Zealots. On foul days and fair
The carrier served you with promptness
and care
And all the year long kept your wishes in view.
Perhaps on this day you'll REMEMBER HIM TOO.

NEWS OF OHIO

A Fast Express Collides With a Freight Train

BAD WRECK AT MIDDLETOWN

Singular Accident at Lima—Skaters Brown—Damage Suit—Cleveland Woman's Suicide.

Dayton, O., Jan. 2.—A serious wreck occurred near Middletown, O. The Michigan River, southbound, on the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton railroad, collided with a northbound freight. Engineer John D. Myers of Cincinnati was killed. Engineer Charles Lingo of Cincinnati was fatally injured, and Brakeman Christman of Cincinnati on the freight train had one leg broken and the knee of his other limb mashed. The only passenger hurt was Guy Farrell of Hamilton, and his injuries are slight. The passengers escaped with slight cuts from broken windows and some were somewhat shocked. Both firemen escaped by jumping, the engines interlocking and turning over in a ditch. Both were running at high speed. The combination smoker and baggage car also left the track, and several freight cars went into the ditch. The fireman of the passenger train, on learning that his engineer was killed, became delirious and could not give his name or address. The injured were taken to the Middletown hospital and wreckage crews from Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton arrived to clear the track.

Singular Accident.
Lima, O., Jan. 2.—Thomas Sullivan of Baltimore was killed, Fred Smith of Chicago piloted beneath an engine pilot for two hours, and seven other laborers narrowly escaped death in a peculiar accident at the new waterworks reservoir here. A cut of cars delivered by the Pennsylvania railroad and loaded with stone crashed through an engine house and forced two engines to the end of a switch, where a shanty occupied by the sleeping men was demolished. Sullivan was cooked beneath the firebox and Smith was buried in the mud beneath the pilot until the engine was lifted with jacks. He may recover.

Four Skaters Drowned.
Akron, O., Jan. 2.—John and Ada Williams, 12 and 17, children of Thomas Williams of Barberton, O., and Katie and Elizabeth Morrison, 13 and 16, daughters of E. J. Morrison of Kenmore, O., were found at the bottom of the canal, a mile north of Barberton, cold in death. The brother and sister were clasped in each other's arms, and all had evidently gone down together. A large hole in the ice and two caps lying on top of the water told the story that some one had drowned, and a searching party brought up the four bodies. The victims had been skating.

Heavy Damage Suit.
Columbus, O., Jan. 2.—Making charges of fraud against its former vice president, suit was filed in the common pleas court by the Columbus and Hocking Coal and Iron company against Sidney A. McManigal, asking that damages in the sum of $215,000 be given to the complainant. Misuse of the company's rights is alleged.

Woman Kills Herself.
Cincinnati, O., Jan. 2.—Brooding over the loss of her husband, who left her four years ago, and despondent because of ill health, Mrs. Mary Reagan, 32, committed suicide by cutting her throat with a pair of scissors.

Struck by Train.
Zanesville, O., Jan. 2.—William Larkins, 50, of Dayton, was struck by a Pennsylvania railroad train at Trimbway and instantly killed.

Alexandria Mortality Record.
Alexandria, O., Jan. 2.—The mortality record for township and this village was very small in 1904, only six deaths during the year that were buried in our cemetery, as follows:

March 2, A. K. Chadwick; April 8, Thos. Baker; April 14, C. D. Maranville; April 27, Chas. Coulter; May 12, infant of Mr. and Mrs. Board; Sept. 23, James Hammond.

All, except one, were males and voters. The burials in Maple Grove cemetery for the year were 15 in number, nine bodies being brought here for interment, two from Newark, two from Columbus, two from Jersey, one each from Granville, Liberty and Johnstown, one or two being buried elsewhere in the township, where no burial record is kept.

CITY'S GROWTH

Observations on Newark's Development

NO DEAD INDUSTRY IS HERE

Tenacity With Which Original Factory
Sites are Holding Their Own
Is Noticed.

A birdseye view of Newark a generation ago would have revealed a beautifully located nucleus for a prosperous little city. A view from the same situation today would give a splendidly verified result. Many disparagements and discouragements have been met and buried in the interval; local and national backsets and calamities have vented their extreme violence and gone their way; eventually progress has always been the victor. A full proportion of American optimism, courage and push seem to have been annually showered within the city's limits, ever broadening and extending them as they fell, until today there are but few citizens of Newark, of any years standing as such, who are other than proud of its thrifty, normal, strides toward a permanent position as one of the good towns of the State.

This article, however, is not intended primarily to boom Newark among its own citizens, but to present to them a few simple facts relative to the growth of recent years. Notwithstanding the virtue of modesty, however, and the impersonal nature of the article, The Advocate having distributed facts to the people of Essex county for over three generations, takes the liberty of a pardonable pride in all favorable comparisons of the past with the present which appear below.

The extent of the city in the four directional points of the compass twenty odd years ago can be outlined by the following:

West Main, as a street, disappeared just beyond the old graveyard, but surpassing its sister streets triumphantly emerged a half mile beyond, nestling close to the canal bank and proudly bearing on its dusty or muddy bosom the hamlet of "Lockport." With the outline as a basis even the most recent comers can note an advance which speaks very favorably of the calibre of the people who have dwelt here for the past two decades. A city like a business will not grow unless properly managed and pushed, and in addition there must be merit back of it. The qualities of merit as advanced by Newark might be named as follows:

First, Location in a State strong both in manufacture and agriculture. Second, Two trunk lines. Third, Good drainage and beautiful surroundings. Fourth, Natural gas.

Thrifty energetic citizens and a liberal spirit have done the rest. What these united factors have accomplished in the time given is an aptly attested by the beautiful residence districts centering on North Third street and Grandville street and the immense factory and home covered neighborhoods of East and West Newark. Right here a point should be emphasized. A consideration of the locations of additions brings into forcible relief, the truth that the points of greatest development, have been determined by two causes, the one natural and the other created, viz., topography, or the lay of the ground, and the location of the railroads. For residence purposes the nicely lying, well-drained, ground has had a long lead. For instance, Grandville street, Woodside and the North End, from Park avenue west to North Fourth street. Another instance is the distribution of building lots near factories, which anchor on high ground as distant from the creek bottom as is consistent with convenience to the place of employment or workmen. On the contrary South Newark, which is low and traversed by the creek in addition to being separated from the square by numerous railroad tracks, has developed but slowly owing to these disparaging physical conditions. Likewise the section to the southeast along the R. & O. Railroad and the Lackawanna River. The railroad comes into play in the location of factories, which location is dictated primarily by shipping facilities. Consequently the West End with its double tracks used by two roads has had a great manufacturing development. The most of this section has been very favorable for the building of adjacent dwelling districts, in places being easily and inexpensively placed on the market. It is a fortunate coincidence for Newark's expansion and appearance that the two factors mentioned, favorable topography and fine shipping facilities, should occur in such splendid identical proportions.

A very interesting and noteworthy fact in connection with Newark's growth is the tenacity with which original factory sites are holding their own at present. It seems fitting that the spots whereon first whirled the machinery of production many years ago are lived by the same sort of music today. Way back in the sixties, just east of Union street in the West End, was born the old rolling mill plant which eventually proved a financial failure. Later there came in its stead the Newark Machine Works, the plant of which was destroyed by fire, the company being now located farther west. With the persistency of fate there afterwards arose on this hallowed ground the gigantic Whirl Store Works, which Newarkites proudly proclaim as the largest concern of its kind in the world.

Just south of Jefferson street and east of Sixth in the old home of the trust-engined paper mill there is now the prosperous Howell Meat Packing plant. The buildings first constructed for the Kaiser Stove foundry in North Newark now shelter the Ruggs Hat Works. The largest and completest plant making a specialty of this article in the world.

From the ancient yards of the once Star Glass works there issues the immense bottle output of the Edward H. Verrell company.

The Consumers Brewing company, at the corner of Locust and First streets, inhabits the old Blandy Machine works, which plant was published in an old civil war issue of Harper's Weekly as being one of the completest and biggest concerns of its nature, west of the Alleghany Mountains at that time.

The building formerly owned by the Lane Brothers Brick works on South Sixth street, are refitted and doing service as a furniture factory. The sites are originally selected were evidently all right. The discussion of them brings forth a particularly bright and satisfactory phase of commercial situation here, namely, that today there is not a dead industry within city limits. All such have proven lush in the past have been buried. There is not a useless or silent factory in the city. All are not running to their capacity, nevertheless, the roar of whistles, the clang of machinery and the sharp sounds of loaming cars and wagons are sufficient to more than scatter anything like commercial depression may come in the future, but there appears no possible permanent stoppage to Newark's growth. The city's progress generally, striking has been normal and should last. Newark may have been slow once upon a time, today it is known abroad as a "good town," and is steadily and surely walking toward a proud position among the prosperous smaller cities of the State. May the year 1905 surpass all that have preceded.

IN AN ICE HOUSE

Clark Adams Found Dead
Saturday Night

HAD BEEN MISSING A WEEK

For a Time There Was Some Doubt as to the Identity of the Dead Man.

Clark Adams, aged 55, a native of Fredericktown, but who has been living in Newark for the past 25 years, was found dead in an ice house in Franklin's addition Saturday night about 7 o'clock. He had evidently been dead for a couple of days, and his face and hands had been gnawed by rats. He was taken to the establishment of Bowers & Criss Bros., undertakers, where the body was prepared for interment.

There was for a time some doubt as to the identification of the dead man, but this was cleared by Messrs. Frank Baughman and Crom Brown, for whom the deceased had worked. He was employed some time ago by Liveryman Perry Rank.

The remains were shipped to Fredericktown Sunday night where the interment will be made.

The body was discovered by George Richardson and George Forsythe who entered the ice house to prepare it for the reception of ice. Later H. S. Anderson, the cigar manufacturer, was called to view the remains. The body lay on the sawdust of the floor. It is supposed that Adams entered the place to sleep. He had been missing for a week.

AMUSEMENTS

As late New York managers have repeatedly made Messrs. Blongli and Fennessy offers of big sums of money for their celebrated farce comedy.

"The Katzenjammer Kids," but to all their propositions the Western managerial firm has turned a deaf ear. While other organizations have lost money, this aggregation has continued in the even tenor of its way and proceeded to reap the reward of merit—prosperity. This great fun-producing comedy will hold the boards at the Auditorium on Tuesday, January 3, and it is a foregone conclusion that our citizens will turn out in large numbers to welcome the company to our city.

The company includes such well-known artists as Baker & Lynn, the premier delineators of juvenile comedy. Vally Clark, the popular German comedian; Robinson Sisters, acrobatic marvels; Major Crique, the funniest comedian before the public; Day & Vestal, novelty act; William Baker, monologue comedian; Josie Baker, chic soubrette; George V. Baker, character comedian, and many others. Seat sale opened Monday.

"UNDER SOUTHERN SKIES."

The one conspicuous play of southern life now being presented to the public is "Under Southern Skies." Its success has been extraordinary and it grows in favor with each succeeding season. "Under Southern Skies," is now in its fourth season and it is unquestionably one of those plays which, like "The Old Homestead" and "Way Down East," seems destined to go on forever. "Under Southern Skies," has been called the "Way Down East" of the South, and many even prefer it to the homelike New England play. The scenery of "Under Southern Skies," is a reproduction of the luxuriant, flowery landscapes and stately homes of the South. The women wear the dainty, gay costumes affected by the high born Southern woman, and the play fairly bubbles with the gay and lavish hospitality for which the people of the South have always been noted. Woven throughout the scenes of merriment and mirth with which the play abounds, is a story of intense interest that holds the audience from the rise to the fall of the curtain. A large cast is employed in the presentation of this play, two boys even people, and each one has been selected because of his or her special fit for the part. Another feature of the appearance of "Under Southern Skies" at the Auditorium on Thursday, January 5, will be one of the best events of the theatrical season.

"WHO GOES THERE?"

The Globe says: "After the play 'The Old Homestead,' as a company and has two fellow entertainers, and on the stage, the fun was hilarious to the very end. The contributions were in the form of the extreme. The author has thrown a great deal of wholesome sense into the lines of 'Who Goes There?' and an excellent company of funmakers do the rest."

"OUR PASTOR," COMING SOON.

An attraction of more than ordinary interest to Newark theater-goers is the Western comedy drama, "Our Pastor," in which Mr. Daniel Sully and his company will appear at the Auditorium soon.

This is a story of Idaho, the scene being laid in a rough-and-ready cattle town, where a census of good citizens and tough characters would show the latter in a large majority. Jim Carter, a wealthy ranchman, who is the recognized boss of the town, is in love with his ward, Margaret Manning, a pretty girl many years his junior. The young lady is secretly engaged to a youthful mining engineer, Arnold Leslie, and when Carter learns this he proceeds to make the course of true love as rocky as possible. Father Daly, pastor of the struggling little Boom City church, intervenes and eventually succeeds in straightening out matters to the satisfaction of most of the parties concerned. His efforts are not always appreciated and he meets with a great deal of very unkind treatment in the course of his labors, but in the end his efforts are crowned with success and he has the satisfaction of knowing that he has averted bloodshed and made a number of people very happy.

The role of Father Daly in "Our Pastor," gives Mr. Sully great opportunities for the display of that rich Celtic humor which is characteristic of his comedy methods.

COUGHED UP PIN

Which He Had Swallowed Twenty Years Ago—He Died After an Operation.

The death of Harry F. Healey, of Chicago, at the Nashua hospital in Nashua, N. H., last Friday, has made a new record in surgical cases. Healey coughed up a pin last Monday which he swallowed while playing ball in Chicago 20 years ago when he was 18. He had been frequently in the hospital on account of it, and as a stoppage ensued after ejecting it Monday he was operated upon in the hospital and it was discovered that 15 inches of his intestines had "telescoped." The part was removed and a ring inserted to connect the ends, but Healey died.

BY OHLIGER
THOUSANDS WERE BORROWED BEFORE HE LEFT.
One Confiding Friend Forced to the Poor House After He Loaned His All.

Wooster, O., Jan. 2.—At a meeting held here by the creditors of Louis P. Ohliger and J. R. Zimmerman, the missing officers of the failed Wooster National bank, the absent men having been adjudged bankrupts, as individuals and partners, under the firm name of Zimmerman & Co. John C. McClarran, of Wooster, was elected trustee. About 150 creditors were represented, among them quite a number who it was not known had claims against the men and firm. It has been known for some time that Ohliger, during the last year, had borrowed many thousands of dollars on his own note. At this meeting it developed that Ohliger within a few days of his departure had borrowed right and left. The confidence which the community and his neighbors had in Ohliger was shown when a number who had given him their all without so much as taking a note put in their claims to the trustee. How much the missing cashier secured in this way is not known and probably never will be, for it is evident that Ohliger's personal creditors will get practically nothing. Ohliger, within 10 days of absconding, secured $10,000 from three women who are neighbors to his family, from one $5,000, from the other $2,500. One of the creditors was an aged man, Aaron Beck, a bachelor, who had saved and toiled all his life so as to have something for his old age. Beck, six months ago, loaned Ohliger $2,500, all he had in the world, and, after attending to meeting, went to the county infirmary, where he applied for and was furnished lodging. Other creditors represented at the meeting were Mrs. George Howard, a widow, who entrusted Ohliger with $2,000 earned at the wash tub. Miss Kitty Brown, for 20 years a domestic in Ohliger's family gave the banker $2,000 to invest for her, which he failed to do, it is said. The developments of the last few days have demonstrated that Ohliger's abuse of the confidence of his friends dates back more than a dozen years, when he was serving the people as Congressman, revenue collector, postmaster and county treasurer.
